SUMMER ASSOCIATE PROGRAM. The firm offers summer associate programs in several of its US offices, though the size of the programs varies year to year based on demand. Program lengths vary depending on location, but they typically run from 9 to 10 weeks. During this time, summer associates have the opportunity to explore different areas of the law by working on actual matters. Summer associates attend hearings, depositions, trials, negotiations and client meetings. They also hone legal writing skills by helping research and draft agreements, briefs, articles and blog posts. In addition, summer associates are encouraged to explore the local community and attend attorney dinners, summer associate lunches, social events and a firm-wide summer associate retreat.

WELLNESS PROGRAM. BWell is a firm-wide program promoting healthy work-life integration among Bracewell lawyers and staff. The program focuses on four key areas: (1) mental well-being, (2) physical well-being, (3) financial well-being and (4) community. Each quarter, programming is developed that explores one of these topics in greater detail. This includes guest speakers, group discussions and goal setting. Each office also hosts "talk into action" activities to keep the conversation going and provide additional resources and training.

ASSOCIATE SELECTION. The firm looks for candidates who have distinguished themselves academically and actively participate in law school and in their local communities. Successful candidates possess a strong work ethic and are self-motivated. Given Bracewell's collaborative culture, we also look for individuals who are team players.
