Organization Narrative

Fish & Richardson's Atlanta office is home to nearly 30 intellectual property attorneys who handle high-stakes, high-profile matters not only in Georgia, but nationally and internationally. They manage the patent portfolio for a confidential global Fortune 25 company and have been involved in global and domestic litigation disputes representing a confidential global Fortune 10 company, as well as handling matters in a wide array of District Court jurisdictions, the Patent Trial and Appeal Board, and the International Trade Commission. The Atlanta office provides its attorneys with key experiences and responsibilities early on in their careers to enable each member to build their practice long term. Our Atlanta attorneys have made adjunct appearances at Emory Law School for several years, including teaching a full patent litigation course in 2016, serving 10 years on the Emory Law Alumni Board, and giving two commencement speeches with the late Congressman John Lewis and Mayor Shirley Franklin. The Atlanta office attorneys come from premier law schools and diverse backgrounds, many with technical degrees in electrical engineering, computer science, chemistry, chemical engineering, and biology. The Atlanta office is also deeply invested in its community, performing many hours of Georgia-based pro bono work for Kids in Need of Defense, Atlanta Volunteer Lawyers Foundation, Georgia Lawyers for the Arts, the Georgia Justice Project, and more.

Fish & Richardson, the premier global intellectual property law firm, is trusted by the world's most innovative and influential companies. From patent, trademark, and copyright prosecution and counseling to our full-service litigation practice, we work together to provide our clients with exceptional advocacy across the life cycle of intellectual property needs in the U.S. and around the world. Our deep bench of attorneys with first-chair trial experience in every technology makes us the go-to firm for the most technically complex cases. Fish was established in 1878, and now has more than 400 attorneys and technology specialists in the U.S., Europe, and China. Our success is rooted in our creative and inclusive culture, which values the diversity of people, experiences, and perspectives.
